2 Reason for discontinuation

Due to the EOL of a critical component used in the SARA-U201 module variants, u-blox is forced to announce the end-of-life for the above listed products.

Our successor products offer better performance and more functionality.

3 Customer impact and recommended action

u-blox recommends migrating from the SARA-U201 to the LARA-R6/LENA-R8 Cat1 series with 2G or 3G fallback. The footprints for the LARA and LENA modules have been developed to ensure layout compatibility. The LARA-R6 and LENA-R8 series come with enhanced performance and additional features.

Please consult local FAEs for further support.
